

Sealed Combustion

Main components of a Sealed Combustion Heating Forced Air System =

- Furnace
 - Brings air from outside for combustion of fuel within a sealed system.
 - Takes Exhaust from combustion to outside within a sealed system.
 - Condensing
 - Eliminates possibility of CO₂ poisoning